DECLARATION OF SCOTT D. MATTHEWS

SCOTT D. MATTHEWS, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746, declares:

1. I am a member of the Indiana bar and associated with the law firm of Ice Miller in Indianapolis, Indiana. I am admitted pro hac vice in this lawsuit and represent Defendant Australian Gold, Inc.

2. Australian Gold's co-counsel is Francis J. Earley, a member of the New York bar and associated with Mintz Levin Cohn Ferris Glovsky and Popeo, P.C.

3. I make this Declaration based on personal knowledge in support of Defendant's motion under Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 26, 37 and 45 to compel non-parties and to produce documents requested in the subpoena dated November 7, 2005, and to produce documents requested in the subpoena dated October 7, 2005, and for all non-parties to be ordered to pay Australian Gold its reasonable costs and attorneys' fees incurred in making this motion.

4. On October 7, 2005, Australian Gold served subpoenas on the four suppliers that it has disclosed as its source for the Australian Gold, Swedish Beauty and Caribbean Gold tanning lotions. Service of process was effected by hand delivery on all four suppliers. A true and correct copy of the subpoena served on and the return of service is attached hereto as Exhibit 1. response was due on or before October 21, 2005, but it failed to respond.

5. On October 25, 2005, provided a handwritten response to the October 7, 2005 subpoena. The response was signed by and provided a telephone number for Australian Gold to call. A true and correct copy of response is attached hereto as Exhibit 2. Among other things, stated that all invoices and sales by to S & L Vitamins were "thrown out upon payment." claimed that it had no documents responsive to the transactions between it and S & L Vitamins.

REDACTED

6. On October 27, 2005, I telephoned [redacted] and spoke with him concerning his handwritten response. [redacted] confirmed that he and other business partners operated at least two tanning salons in the Long Island area under the name of [redacted].

[redacted] He informed me that one of his tanning salons was an Australian Gold premier salon. Premier salons have three year contracts with Australian Gold to exclusively sell Australian Gold and Swedish Beauty Products. In consideration for participating as a premier salon, the salon receives special bonus cash back and rebates directly from Australian Gold.

7. [redacted] informed me that S & L Vitamins placed orders once or twice a week with [redacted]. Large orders were in the $2,000.00-$3,000.00 range. [redacted] stated that S & L Vitamins always paid for its purchases by check and that invoices were generated reflecting the transactions. [redacted] claimed that all invoices were destroyed upon completion of the transaction.

8. I asked [redacted] not to destroy any invoices in the future and to forward them to me. [redacted] stated that he would do so. To date, I have not received any invoices from [redacted].

9. Following the telephone conversation, I sent [redacted] a letter confirming our conversation. I specifically advised him not to discard any invoices relating to sales to S & L Vitamins and again requested that he produce invoices of sales to S & L Vitamins. A true and correct copy of this letter is attached hereto as Exhibit 3.

10. As a follow up to the telephone conversation, Australian Gold, by counsel, served a second subpoena on [redacted] and [redacted] on November 2, 2005. A true and correct copy of this subpoena is attached hereto as Exhibit 4.

REDACTED

11. Among other things, Australian Gold sought telephone records used by and because such information would confirm whether S & L Vitamins had placed telephone calls to Australian Gold also sought bank records because these records would tend to show payments received from S & L Vitamins, especially since all payments were by check and presumably deposited in checking account. Since confirmed that it was an Australian Gold premier salon, Australian Gold also requested rebate checks, correspondence and agreements between and Australian Gold because Australian Gold may have claims against if it is one of the suppliers that is diverting products to S & L Vitamins.

12. and response to the second subpoena was due on or before November 14, 2005, but they have failed and refused to respond to the second subpoena.

13. For the reasons set forth above and fully explained in the accompanying Memorandum of Law, I respectfully request that the Court grant the Defendant's motion to compel non-parties and to produce documents requested in the subpoenas and to pay Australian Gold its reasonable attorney fees and costs associated with filing this motion.

14. I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed on December 7, 2005.

Rule 45, Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Parts C&D:

(c) PROTECTION OF PERSONS SUBJECT TO SUBPOENAS.

(1) A Party or an attorney responsible for the issuance and service of a subpoena shall take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to that subpoenas. The court on behalf of which the subpoena was issued shall enforce this duty and impose upon the party or attorney in breach of this duty an appropriate sanction which may include, but is not limited to, lost earnings and reasonable attorney's fee.

(2) (A) A Person commanded to produce and permit inspection and copying of designated books, papers, documents or tangible things, or inspection of premises need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless commanded to appear for deposition, hearing or trial.

(B) Subject to paragraph (d)(2) of this rule, a person commanded to produce and permit inspection and copying may, within 14 days after service of subpoena or before the time specified for compliance if such time is less than 14 days after service, serve upon the party or attorney designated in the subpoena written objection to inspection or copying of any or all of the designated materials or of the premises. If objection is made, the party serving the subpoena shall not be entitled to inspect and copy materials or inspect the premises except pursuant to an order of the court by which the subpoena was issued. If objection has been made, the party serving the subpoena may, upon notice to the person commanded to produce, move at time for an order to compel the production. Such an order to compel production shall protect any person who is not a party or an officer of a party from significant expense resulting from the inspection and copying commanded.

(3) (A) On timely motion, the court by which a subpoena was issued shall quash or modify the subpoena if it

(i) fails to allow reasonable time for compliance;

(ii) requires a person who is not a party or an officer of a party to travel to a place more than 100 miles from the place where that person resides, is employed or regularly transacts business in person, except that, subject to the provisions of clause (c) (B) (iii) of this rule, such a person may in order to attend trial be commanded to travel from any such place within the state in which the trial is held, or

(iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter and no exception or waiver applies, or

(iv) subjects a person to undue burden,

(B) If a subpoena

(i) requires disclosure of a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information, or

(ii) requires disclosure of an unretained expert's opinion or information not describing specific events or occurrences in dispute and resulting from the expert's study made not at the request of any party, or

(iii) requires a person who is not a party or an officer of a party to incur substantial expense to travel more than 100 miles to attend trial, the court may, to protect a person subject to or affected by the subpoena, quash or modify the subpoena, or, if the party in whose behalf the subpoena is issued shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship and assures that the person to whom the subpoena is addressed will be reasonably compensated, the court may order appearance or production only upon specified conditions.

(d) DUTIES IN RESPONDING TO SUBPOENA

(1) A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents shall produce them as they are kept in the usual course of business or shall organize and label them to correspond with the categories in the demand.

(2) When information subject to a subpoena is withheld on a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial preparation materials, the claim shall be made expressly and shall be supported by a description of the nature of the documents, communications, or things not produced that is sufficient to enable the demanding party to contest the claim.

Re: Australian Gold, Inc. v. S&L Vitamins, Inc. and Larry Sagarin

Dear

This letter confirms our conversation today concerning the subpoena we served on you and your sale of Australian Gold, Swedish Beauty, and Caribbean Gold tanning lotions to S&L Vitamins, Inc. and Larry Sagarin.

Australian Gold, Sagarin and his business are in litigation over the sale of these products over the internet. You have admitted to selling to Sagarin but claim that you do not have any records to verify these sales. You stated that all invoices that you prepare reflecting sales to S&L Vitamins and/or Sagarin are given to Sagarin, reviewed by him and returned to you. You claim that you throw these invoices away.

This letter shall put you on notice that invoices of sales to S&L Vitamins and Sagarin are evidence in Australian Gold's claims against Sagarin and were specifically requested in the subpoena we served on you on October 7, 2005. You must not discard any invoices relating to sales to S&L Vitamins, Sagarin, or any person or entity related to any of them until further notice from us. Documents related to all future transactions must be retained. If you fail to retain copies of these records, you will be subject to a claim of spoliation of evidence which we will bring before the United States District Court for the Eastern District of New York.

Copies of all documents related to sales to S&L Vitamins, Sagarin, or any person or entity related to any of them must be provided to me. You have agreed to comply with the subpoena and send us this information. We will expect you to do so in a timely manner. Since Sagarin places orders as frequently as 1 to 2 times per week, we will expect to receive these documents on a regular basis. You may send them to me via facsimile at (317) 592-5418.

You also informed me that Sagarin always paid by check, but claimed that you had no proof of payment. This information is easily verifiable through your bank records and your accountant. Please provide us with the name of your bank so we may issue a subpoena. Also, please provide me with the name and telephone number of your accountant.

I cannot stress how important it is to be completely honest with me. I know that you and Mr. Sagarin are long-time acquaintances but your failure to be completely truthful in responding to the subpoena could have serious ramifications.

Thank you for your cooperation.

Sincerely,

ICE/MILLER

Rule 45, Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Parts C & D:

(c) PROTECTION OF PERSONS SUBJECT TO SUBPOENAS.

(1) A party or an attorney responsible for the issuance and service of a subpoena shall take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to that subpoena. The court on behalf of which the subpoena was issued shall enforce this duty and impose upon the party or attorney in breach of this duty an appropriate sanction which may include, but is not limited to, lost earnings and reasonable attorney's fee.

(2) (A) A person commanded to produce and permit inspection and copying of designated books, papers, documents or tangible things, or inspection of premises need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless commanded to appear for deposition, hearing or trial.

(B) Subject to paragraph (d)(2) of this rule, a person commanded to produce and permit inspection and copying may, within 14 days after service of subpoena or before the time specified for compliance if such time is less than 14 days after service, serve upon the party or attorney designated in the subpoena written objection to inspection or copying of any or all of the designated materials or of the premises. If objection is made, the party service the subpoena shall not be entitled to inspect and copy materials or inspect the premises except pursuant to an order of the court by which the subpoena was issued. If objection has been made, the party serving the subpoena may, upon notice to the person commanded to produce, move at any time for an order to compel the production. Such an order to compel production shall protect any person who is not a party or an officer of a party from significant expense resulting from the inspection and copying commanded.

(3) (A) On timely motion, the court by which a subpoena was issued shall quash or modify the subpoena if it

(i) fails to allow reasonable time for compliance;

(ii) requires a person who is not a party or an officer of a party to travel to a place more than 100 miles from the place where that person resides, is employed or regularly transacts business in person, except that, subject to the provisions of clause (c)(3)(B)(iii) of this rule, such a person may in order to attend trial be commanded to travel from any such place within the state in which the trial is held, or

(iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter and no exception or waiver applies, or

(iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) If a subpoena

(i) requires disclosure of a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information or

(ii) requires disclosure of an unretained expert's opinion or information not describing specific events or occurrences in dispute and resulting from the expert's study made not at the request of any party, or

(iii) requires a person who is not a party or an officer of a party to incur substantial expense to travel more than 100 miles to attend trial, the court may, to protect a person subject to or affected by the subpoena, quash or modify the subpoena, or, if the party in whose behalf the subpoena is issued shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship and assures that the person to whom the subpoena is addressed will be reasonably compensated, the court may order appearance or production only upon specified conditions.

(d) DUTIES IN RESPONDING TO SUBPOENA

(1) A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents shall produce them as they are kept in the usual course of business or shall organize and label them to correspond with the categories in the demand.

(2) When information subject to a subpoena is withheld on a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial preparation materials, the claim shall be made expressly and shall be supported by a description of the nature of the documents, communications, or things not produced that is sufficient to enable the demanding party to contest the claim.
